

Preventing Child Abuse and Neglect In Shelters and Other Congregate Housing

Developed by the National Resource Center for Child Protective Services through a grant from the Children's Bureau

- ❖ Training for:
 - Persons responsible for operating shelters and other congregate living arrangements
 - Staff and volunteers

- ❖ Covers:
 - Physical abuse
 - Emotional abuse
 - Physical neglect
 - Emotional neglect

- ❖ Special emphasis on Sexual Abuse:
 - Stresses there is no easy way to identify perpetrators
 - Illustrates vulnerability of children
 - Describes approaches made by:
 - Strangers
 - Family members
 - Acquaintances
 - Emphasizes prevention

Complete curriculum with trainers' script, powerpoint and participants' handbook available at www.nrccps.org